Summary of Booking Terms and Conditions

Groups should, wherever possible, be accompanied by their own staff at a ratio of one adult leader to 6 young people.

Activities are planned on a 'session' basis and a normal 'working' group size of 1 instructor, 6 young people and 1 visiting staff member (adult leader). This ratio can be increased at the Centre Manager's discretion.

Instructional staff - for activities will be provided by Grenville House.

Extra - When additional services are required, other than those normally available, the full cost of these will be passed on to the group. Charges will be made for breakages/damage.

Insurance - All groups must be covered for third party claims and leaders' negligence. Grenville House cannot accept any responsibility for such claims, nor for any personal accidents or loss of property. Please ensure your insurers are informed of the activities that you intend to take part in.

Personal information - all individuals, including staff/leaders, must provide next of kin and relevant medical information prior to, or upon arrival. Grenville House Outdoor Education Centre consent forms are available if required.

To make a booking please follow the 3 steps below:-

1. Contact the Centre by phone, email or using the contact form to see if the dates you require are available.

2. If your required dates are available you can make your 'Provisional Booking' to reserve those dates.

3. A 'Confirmed Booking' is secured by returning the completed and signed booking form along with the appropriate deposit.

All booking forms are available by downloading them from the list below or can be sent to you by post upon request.

Before confirming your booking please read the complete 'Booking Terms and Conditions' which can be found on the main menu of our website.

Please note that bookings can only be made from the 1st Monday in December for the next two years ahead.

The information provided on this form will not be processed or shared for any unrelated purpose and will be stored securely. For further information please see our full privacy notice at:https://www.grenvillehouse.co.uk/res//documents/Policy_Documents/GDPR_policy.pdf
